MEET THE ARTIST

FOUNDER & ILLUSTRATOR

Welcome to Illustrated Melanin, a thoughtfully curated assortment of illustrations and affirmations designed to inspire joy and foster wellness. Our mission is to ensure that Black and Brown individuals are beautifully represented across all artistic mediums.

Each creation – be it a journal, greeting card, or bookmark – is crafted with heartfelt intention and a focus on nurturing positivity. Our coloring books serve as a therapeutic outlet, aiding in stress reduction and promoting healing. Wellness journals provide a safe space for capturing thoughts, dreams, fears, and everything in between. Our heartfelt greeting cards offer a conduit for sharing messages of love and light for any occasion.

I am thrilled to have your support in sharing these empowering products with your audience. Thank you for allowing my creations to find a home in your store, embracing and celebrating the importance of representation and wellness for all.

XOXO, ELISA

A woman with curly hair, wearing a white t-shirt and blue pants, is sitting on a green sofa. She is smiling and looking towards the camera. The room has a bookshelf, a window with blinds, and several potted plants.
